

Geosphere

gsajournals.org

Geosphere is an online only journal that targets an international audience and publishes high-quality research results from all fields of the geosciences. Geosphere takes advantage of its online format to publish articles rich in color, animations, and oversized figures, including maps, cross sections, and seismic sections. Links to electronic archives ensure the preservation of all data and images. Researchers will find Geosphere's broad scope and variety of contributions a refreshing addition to traditional journals.
