Essential reading for all introductory level physics and physical science educators

A publication of the American Association of Physics Teachers, The Physics Teacher is dedicated to the strengthening of the teaching of introductory physics at all levels. The contents include tutorial papers, articles on pedagogy, current research or news in physics, as well as history, philosophy, and biography. Notes cover classroom techniques, and columns feature demonstration apparatus and book and film reviews.

Online users have access to a full-featured electronic journal that provides access to back issues featuring table of contents, abstracts, and the full text of every article back to 1963.
