Director’s Matters

Season’s greetings and my best wishes for an enjoyable and festive holiday with family and friends! I have enjoyed my first nine months as your new Executive Director, and I am looking forward to working with you next year, to keep AIP a strong organization from your perspective, as well as from the perspective of our other stakeholders in the scientific community.

As you celebrate the New Year, remember that you contribute to an organization that provides and maintains essential information for the education and economy of this country and, indeed, for much of the world now connected through the wonderful tool invented by the physicists—the World Wide Web.

Have a happy and healthy new year!

Sincerely yours,

Fred

AIP Matters will resume publication in the new year.
