

Second Workshop on Scientific Archives: Schedule

August 13, 2018

1:00-1:15 pm: Welcome and opening remarks

1:15-2:30 pm: Session 1 - Scientific Archives/Scientific Data: Capturing the Process of Science

- Jean Deken, SLAC National Accelerator Laboratory, "Scientific Data Management Plans in Theory and In Practice"
- Steve Duckworth & Kate Thornhill, Oregon Health & Science University, "Small-Scale Archival Project and Data Management"
- Juan Ilerbaig, University of Toronto, "Integrating Data and Records in Archiving Scientific Research"

2:30-2:45 pm: Break

2:45-4:00 pm: Session 2 - Science for the People: Documenting Applied Science at Land-Grant Universities in the United States (panel)

- Todd Kosmerick, North Carolina State University
- Lisa Vallen, University of California-Merced
- James R. Stewart Jr., North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University
- Bradley J. Kuennen, Iowa State University

4:30-6:00 pm: Social hour at Hank's Oyster Bar (1624 Q St. NW Washington, DC)

August 14, 2018

9:00-10:30 am: Session 3 - Appraising Scientific Archives

- Polina Ilieva, University of California, San Francisco, "Science Online: Evaluating Appraisal, Usage, and Impact"
- John Faundeen, U.S. Geological Survey, "Science and Technology Archives: The Art and Science of Conducting Appraisals"
- Patrick Shea, Science History Institute, "Appraising Archives of the History of Science"

10:30-10:45 am: Coffee Break

10:45 am-12:30 pm: Session 4 - Collaborations and Interdisciplinary Approaches to Scientific Archives

- Yoanna Alexiou, Université libre de Bruxelles, "The Solvay Science Project: A Brief History of a Long-term Interdisciplinary Working Process"
- Stephanie Vasko, Michigan State University, "Interdisciplinary Approaches to Scientific Archive Research: Integrating Perspectives from the Arts and Humanities"
- Roger Turner, Science History Institute, "Collaboration between Historians and Archivists in Making a Digital Archive: The Beckman Legacy Project"
- Magalie Moysan & Margot Georges, Université d'Angers, "When French Archivists Speak about Researchers and their Archives: A Textual Analysis"

12:30-1:30 pm: Lunch

1:45-3:20 pm: Session 5 - Creating Access to Scientific Archives

- Laura Outterside, European XFEL, "New Science, New Archives: Records Management at European XFEL"
- Ana Margarida Dias da Silva et al., Universidade de Coimbra, "The Importance of the Botanic Archive in Contextualizing the Botanic Collections of the University of Coimbra"
- Klaus Nippert, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT), KIT-Archives, "Tracing the Lost Sense – A Modular Approach to the Intellectual Recognition of Image Contents"
- Christos Mais, Leiden University Centre for the Arts in Society, "Archival Bridge over Troubled Waters: Challenges in the Making of the Thessaloniki Port Authority Historical Archive"

3:20-3:50 pm: Session 6 - Scientific Archives and the Arts

- Christian Salewski, Alfred-Wegener-Institut Helmholtz Centre for Polar and Marine Research/ Archive for German Polar Research (AGPR), "The History of German Polar Research goes Theatre – The Project "Staging Files""

3:50-4:00 pm: Wrap-up discussion

4:00-5:00 pm: Reception